

Understanding Homolateral and Befriending Triple Warmer

Our ability to learn, shift habits, get well and make lasting changes are greatly impacted by Triple Warmer and our ability to move in and out of Homolateral. SAFETY is the number one priority! A basic understanding of the Three Dimensional Brain is the beginning of a new relationship with Triple Warmer and will give you something to appreciate about Homolateral. The Three Dimensional Brain is also called the Triune Brain and is directly linked to our ability to Communicate (Left/Right), Comprehend (Top/Bottom), and Focus (Front/Back), or THINK, FEEL AND PARTICIPATE. You will learn to: (1) test and identify which part of the brain is stuck and resistant to change (2) how to use Energy Medicine and Brain Gym Movements to make the changes you want. Energy Follows Intention, you can become a Master in creating new neural nets. Why survive when you can learn to Thrive?
